Notification No. 4822, dated 5th December 1921.

THE B. KRISHNAIENGAR PRIZE.

1. (a) A prize of the value of Rs. 405 founded by Mr. B. V. Krishnaiengar, will be awarded by the University Council for the best thesis on any one of the following subjects:—

(1) The external trade of Mysore in the last 25 years considered with special reference to its effects on the economic life of the people.

(2) The Silk Industry in the State—its organization and extent at the present time and its prospects in the future.

(3) Economic conditions in a Mysore Village—a survey.

(b) The prize is open to competition to graduates of the Mysore University and also to graduates of other Indian Universities who have taken their degrees between the years 1914 and 1917, and who are natives of Mysore.

2. The thesis should be submitted to the Registrar, Mysore University, Mysore, so as to reach him on or before the 15th June 1923.

3. Each candidate for the thesis should state generally in an introductory note and specifically in foot-notes, the extent to which he has relied upon different sources of information and the portion which he claims as his original work.

4. The thesis should have a motto instead of the writer's name, and should be accompanied by a sealed cover containing the name of the candidate, his University standing, his post office address and a declaration that the thesis sent in by him is bona fide his own composition.

5. The thesis must be the result of the personal investigations of its author and must contain clear evidence of independent and original work. Essays or thesis consisting only of criticisms and compilations, will be ineligible for the prize, unless accompanied by the results of the author's independent work.

6. Each candidate must forward four printed or type-written copies of his thesis which must be accompanied by a statement showing when or where the work was carried out. If any portion of the work was done in collaboration or under guidance, the nature and extent of such collaboration or guidance must be clearly stated.
